

Art & Movement for All

An inclusive dance program that will provide children with developmental disabilities the opportunity to further develop social, emotional and physical skills in a safe environment through the discipline of dance.

Program Details

- FREE program open to children with physical or developmental disabilities, ages 7 to 12
- Class meets 1 time per week on Monday evenings, 6:45 pm – 7:30 pm
- Located at the Dayton Dance Conservatory 7762 Waynetowne Blvd. Dayton, OH 45424
- Classes run August 30, 2021 – June 6, 2022
- Dancers will have three performance opportunities

Through movement and rhythm activities led by a licensed Intervention Specialist with the help of peer mentors, children will work on:

- ✓ Gross & fine motor skills
- ✓ Body control & awareness
- ✓ Strength & flexibility
- ✓ Social Skills
- ✓ Coordination
- ✓ Memory & recall skills
- ... and much, much more!

Please contact us at daytondcompany@gmail.com for more information

DDCC DAYTON DANCE
CONSERVATORY
COMPANY

This project was made possible/supported in part by a Special Projects Grant funded by the Montgomery County Arts & Cultural District and administered by Culture Works

